$100,000.00 AUTO ACCIDENT RECOVERY

The Law Offices of Justin G. Morgan, P.A. was recently retained by an individual who was involved in a moderate automobile accident two (2) years ago. Our client had been using another attorney for the past two (2) years to handle his automobile accident claim.

After two (2) years on the job, our client's prior attorney was only able to secure a top settlement offer of $20,000.00 on our client's claim against a $100,000.00 liability insurance policy. Our client was frustrated with his prior attorney and he felt that he was not getting a full and proper explanation of what was transpiring in his case. He was frustrated and confused as to why the insurance company was only making a top offer of $20,000.00.

The client contacted The Law Offices of Justin G. Morgan, P.A. and, after an initial free consultation, asked us to take over his case from his prior and first attorney. Once our firm was retained, we immediately started requesting and reviewing all of our client's medical records. Our firm was able to distinguish new and serious issues for the liability insurance company to conduct another review in regards to our client's damage claim for the automobile accident. Within thirty (30) days of The Law Offices of Justin G. Morgan, P.A. representing our client's claim with additional arguments, the liability insurance company agreed to pay its $100,000.00 bodily injury policy limit. The Law Offices of Justin G. Morgan, P.A. was able to secure a recovery of five (5) times greater than our client's prior and first attorney.

At The Law Offices of Justin G. Morgan, P.A. we never charge for a consultation. If you or a loved one has been involved in a personal injury matter and you are frustrated or don't know which way to turn, call us for a free consultation at 1-800-9-JUSTIN. Our goal, as personal injury attorneys, is to take the confusion and worry out of your individual case and resolve it as quickly and fairly as possible so that you can get the medical treatment you may need and continue on with your life.

WANT TO HANDLE YOUR OWN CASE?

THINGS NOT TO DO

At The Law Offices of Justin G. Morgan, P.A. we believe that there are only a few types of cases that may be well-suited for self representation. If your claim only involves automobile damage you can probably resolve your vehicle repair claim on your own. If you have any injury or aches and pains, you should not handle your claim on your own.

If you have decided that you want to handle your own case, here are some things not to do.

1. Do not exaggerate or seek out excessive medical treatment. Not only do you do a disservice to your case, but you also hurt everyone else's claims by giving the insurance industry more propaganda to disparage personal injury claims. In addition, you run the risk of not keeping your settlement money because you may have to pay back the health insurance company or doctor's bills that are totally not related to your injury claim.
2. Do not lie. Credibility is everything. Everything you say or write, to the insurance company, your doctors, or anyone else, will be carefully scrutinized for inconsistencies to attack your credibility.
3. Do not give a recorded statement to the Defendant's insurance company. The insurance company will ask you to give a recorded statement. Do not do this. You are giving them a statement that they can later use against you. If your insurance company demands a recorded statement, we cannot stress strongly enough that you do not proceed without an attorney.
4. Do not sign a release form for medical records for the Defendant's insurance company. This is your claim and you are in control of it. Your health information is protected by law. The defendant's insurance company is trying to get the release so that they can go after all of your medical records to find prior injuries or other damaging information. By "all" we mean medical records from outside doctors such as OB/GYN, optometrist, drug/alcohol treatment, to name a few.

In many ways, handling your own car accident claim or injury claim is like a doctor who attempts to treat himself. Yes, there is a chance that you are going to be okay, however, there is also the very real risk that you can hurt yourself further. Many attorneys will not take a case where a client has represented them self for a long period of time. Coming in behind someone with no legal experience usually involves a lot of "clean-up" and a decreased value of the case due to the matter's poor positioning. There is no substitute for experience and at The Law Offices of Justin G. Morgan, P.A., we offer clients sound legal counsel.

CLIENT CONCERN:

Do not sign a release for medical records unless your attorney directs you to do so. Your health information is protected by federal law.
