$110,000.00 AUTO ACCIDENT RECOVERY

The Law Offices of Justin G. Morgan, P.A. recently made a recovery of $110,000.00 for a client injured in an automobile accident. It was a three vehicle chain reaction auto accident. Our client was the first vehicle in the chain and was rear-ended. The accident occurred in a school zone. The middle driver claimed that our client cut him off and then purposely slammed on his brakes, causing the accident.

During our firm's investigation of this case, we learned that the driver in the middle was angry with our client from a prior issue. When our client legally changed lanes, the middle driver became enraged and blasted on his horn non-stop. Our client did not know the identity of the middle driver at the time and became nervous and concerned with the horn honking because he was in a school zone. He became so nervous and upset that he did stop his vehicle in an emergency fashion. Our client was struck from the rear as a result of stopping due to the emergent horn honking. Upon further investigation, our office discovered that there was a dispute about which vehicle behind our client caused the rear-end accident.

Our client's injury ultimately required a wrist surgery. However, both insurers defended, stating that the type of impact in this accident could not have caused any need for surgery. Unproductive settlement attempts and vigorous negotiations did not move either insurance company. The Law Offices of Justin G. Morgan, P.A., ultimately told both insurance companies that a lawsuit would be filed and that we would take the matter to court. Before the filing of the lawsuit, we were able to secure a $110,000.00 settlement on behalf of our client with both of the other vehicle insurers contributing to the settlement.

The outstanding outcome of this matter was due to aggressive representation by The Law Offices of Justin G. Morgan, P.A. When you work with our firm, we can help you fight for the results that you deserve. Throughout the years, we have proven that our skills can help our clients receive the recoveries that they deserve. MOTORCYCLE ACCIDENTS

For many Florida residents, motorcycles are a wonderful way to travel to and from work, commute long distances, or enjoy a recreational thrill. The State of Florida has various laws in place to protect motorcyclists, however, serious accidents still occur. When an accident happens, even motorcyclists wearing proper head, eye and body protection are no match for the impact of another vehicle.

Motorcycles do not have the same safety features as cars, so riders can easily fall victim to severe injuries. Motorcycles are small and lightweight, and a collision with a passenger vehicle or stationary object can quickly spell disaster for a biker. If you have been injured, it is important that you work with The Law Offices of Justin G. Morgan, P.A.

No two accidents are ever the same and a variety of factors will be taken into consideration following an accident. At our firm, we take action to help provide our clients with the compensation that they deserve following an accident. Contact The Law Offices of Justin G.
